

Verse 4

How precious are Your thoughts oh God
The sum of which are far more than the sands
When I awake in the morning
When I arise you are there
You are the God who is always everywhere

Verse 5

Oh that you'd slay the wicked, Oh God
Those who would speak in vain against your name
And I do not envy their ways
Nor do I envy their thoughts
For I know the fate that You bring them Oh God

If I take the wings of morning
Am Em
And dwell in the depths of the sea

Lord Your hand will hold and guide me
F
If I say that darkness shall cover me
Am Em
And the light about me be night
F G C
Even darkness is not too dark for Your bright

Verse 6

Search me O God, and know my heart
Try me and know all of my thoughts
And see if there be any wicked way within me
Lord and lead me in the way of Your everlasting.
